SLARLJ 3. SCHEDULING

(a) Calendar. The Court Administrator shall develop and maintain a calendar for all hearings and trials.

(b) Priority. Whenever the caseload of the court requires, trials and other matters will be subject to multiple settings on the same date. The order in which said matters proceed will be determined by the judge based on speedy trial rule in criminal cases, the age of the civil cases, and the availability of jurors.

(c) Transfer of Cases. If the caseload or other circumstances require, the court may appoint a Court Commissioner or Judge Pro Tempore to hear that trial or calendar of cases and may arrange for it to be heard in a location other than the usual courtroom.

SLRCRLJ 40 (b). NOTE FOR TRIAL ASSIGNMENT

Any party may file a notice asking that the case be set for trial. Said notice shall set a hearing date for trial setting. In lieu of appearance at said hearing, the parties may submit their trial conflicts in writing in advance of the date for trial setting. By noting the matter for trial, the moving party certifies that discovery is complete and the case is ready for trial. By not objecting to trial setting, the non-moving party joins in the moving party's certification. A note for trial assignment must be served on the non-moving party at least ten days in advance of the date set for hearing.

SLRCLRJ 7 (b) (5) MOTIONS FOR ORDERS SHORTENING TIME

No party shall seek a motion for order shortening time for hearing a motion unless said party has first notified opposing counsel or the opposing party(s) that such a motion will be sought. The moving party's motion shall be supported by an affidavit or declaration under penalty of perjury detailing the nature of the emergency necessitating the shortening of time and further stating that opposing counsel/party has been provided with a copy of the motion together and the time and place of the hearing wherein the moving party is seeking an order shortening time. Such affidavit or declaration shall state when and where opposing counsel was served with the motion and notice of hearing. The Court shall not grant an order shortening time unless it is satisfied that an emergency justifying the shortening of time truly exists and that the moving party has exercised due diligence in timely advising the opposing counsel/party of the hearing on said motion.

SLRCRLJ 40(g). MANDATORY MEDIATION FOR SMALL CLAIMS COURT

Mediation is mandatory before a trial is allowed in Small Claims Court. Mediation is held at the first scheduled appearance date unless continued by the court for good cause. Both parties must attend the mediation. If the plaintiff fails to appear, a dismissal may be entered. If the defendant fails to appear, their answer, if one was filed, may be stricken and default judgment entered. Parties may bring their evidence to the mediation, however, no witnesses are allowed. The purpose of mediation is to settle the case if possible; if no settlement is made at mediation, the case will be set for trial. Attorneys and paralegals may not represent parties at mediation.

SLRCRLJ 54. REASONABLE ATTORNEY FEES

A. The court shall grant reasonable attorney's fees when permitted by statute or on the basis of a written instrument. A party seeking reasonable attorney's fees shall file with the court the written instrument or, in the event of a dishonored check, proof of the service of the statutory form of Notice of Dishonor in accordance with RCW 62A.3-104. If reasonable attorney fees are requested based on a contract provision, the contract provision must be conspicuously highlighted or underlined to be readily ascertainable. Specific citation of authority must accompany requests for reasonable attorney fees on any basis other than contract provision. Reasonable attorney's fees following the granting of a judgment at trial or motion shall be set by the court, in its discretion, and the court may require the filing of an affidavit in support of the request.

B. Offer of Judgment. When a party is seeking reasonable attorney's fees following the entry of a judgment under the provisions of RCW 4.84.250 through RCW 4.84.300, proof of compliance with the service procedures must be shown to the court following the entry of the judgment.

C. Default Judgments. Reasonable attorney's fees awarded on a default judgment, where authorized by law or contract, shall be presumed to be no more than $500 subject to modification in the court's discretion based upon the circumstances of a particular case and where supported by an affidavit or declaration in support of the request.

SLRCRLJ 56(h) SUMMARY JUDGMENT MOTIONS AGAINST PRO SE LITIGANTS

In all cases where a motion for summary judgment is brought against a litigant who is not represented by an attorney, the moving party must attach a copy of CRLJ 56 to the motion for summary judgment. Said copy shall be attached to the motion filed with the court and the copy of the motion served on the non-moving party. In the event a copy of said rule is not so attached, the motion shall be stricken subject to being re-noted without terms.

SLCRCRLJ 64.1 CIVIL ARREST WARRANTS - NECESSARY INFORMATION

Said information includes the following minimum facts: (1) full name ; (2) date of birth; (3) height or weight, and; (4) hair or eye color.

SLCrRLJ 2.5 ISSUANCE OF BENCH WARRANTS

- (a) FAILURE TO APPEAR AFTER SIGNED PROMISE TO APPEAR: When a defendant has failed to appear either in person or by a lawyer in answer to a citation and notice, or an order of the court, upon which the defendant has signed a notice to appear. In the event defendant's appearance is mandated by statute, defendant must appear personally.
- (b) FAILURE TO APPEAR IN RESPONSE TO A SUMMONS: When a summons has been issued after authorization of a Judge, and determination by a Judge has been made that probable cause exists that the defendant has committed the crime alleged, and the defendant fails to appear in person or by a lawyer. - (e) FAILURE TO APPEAR AFTER PROBATION VIOLATION HEARING: When, after a probation violation hearing, an order has been signed by a Judge directing the defendant to perform certain terms or meet specified conditions or appear, and when there is no evidence in the file that the directed terms and conditions have been satisfied, and the defendant, after signing the order, fails to appear at the time directed in the order.

SLCrRLJ 3.1(e) WITHDRAWAL OF LAWYER

No withdrawal after a case has been set for trial will be recognized by the court, except for cause deemed sufficient by the court. Approval of withdrawal may, if necessary to prevent a continuance, be denied, and such attorney be required to proceed with the trial.

SLCrRLJ 3.1(g) WAIVER OF RIGHT TO COUNSEL

Unless a written waiver of the defendant's right to counsel is signed by the defendant and filed with the Court, an attorney shall be appointed to represent the defendant at all stages of the proceedings. No matter may be set for trial for a self represented defendant, unless such signed waiver is in the Court's file.

SLCrRLJ 3.3 TIME FOR TRIAL

(f) Continuances. All contested motions for continuances shall be heard by notice and citation on the appropriate motion docket. Only in cases of extreme emergency and unforeseeable circumstances shall the presiding judge or the trial judge consider a motion for continuance without the proper notice and citation.

[Amended effective on September 1, 2005]

SLCrRLJ 3.4 (a). PRESENCE OF THE DEFENDANT

Defendant must be present at all stages of the proceedings from arraignment through imposition of sentence. Defendant may waive his/her right to be present unless such waiver conflicts with statute or court rule. Such waiver of presence must be in written form and approved by the Court in advance of each hearing for which waiver of presence is sought. In the event a Defendant does not appear for a hearing and has not obtain prior court approval of a waiver of presence, such non appearance shall constitute a failure to appear for purposes of CrRLJ 3.3 (c) (2) (ii). Both Defendant and Defendant's attorney shall be present at trial confirmation. If Defendant does not appear for trial confirmation, all of Defendant's pending trial dates shall be stricken and a warrant issued for Defendant's arrest.

SLCrRLJ 3.6 SUPPRESSION HEARINGS

A party moving to suppress evidence must file a written motion that sets forth in detail the specific factual and legal grounds for the motion. The motion should be filed with the court at least seven (7) days prior to the pretrial hearing. Said motion shall be supported by an affidavit or declaration under penalty of perjury of a person with testimonial knowledge, setting forth the facts to be elicited at an evidentiary hearing. The matter will be set for evidentiary hearing only if the presiding judge at a pretrial hearing finds that there are facts in dispute. If the parties agree to the facts a written stipulation shall be signed by the parties setting forth the facts on which the court will render its decision. A copy of the motion and supporting documents must be served on the opposing party at least five court days prior to the date set for hearing.

SLCrRLJ 4.1(d). CRIMES REQUIRING DEFENDANT'S APPEARANCE AT ARRAIGNMENT

Where legislation mandates the defendant's appearance on the next judicial day following arrest, the term "next judicial day" as applied to municipal departments of the Skagit County District Court shall mean the next scheduled court day for the appropriate municipal department into which the charge was written. In District Court, arraignments that are required to be held on the "next judicial day" shall be held at 4:00 p.m. on the next court day following issuance of the citation.

Notice to the court should be in written form, however, telephonic notice is acceptable where appropriate due to time constraints provided that said notice is confirmed in writing. It shall be the duty of each party to notify its own witnesses, not only of the date and time of the trial, but also of continuances, pre-trial hearings, motions, and other proceedings. The Court will not pay witness fees to witnesses who appear for a case which has been continued or settled without trial or hearing. The documents are available without a formal request for discovery. In the alternative, or in addition, such documents may be maintained on a web site established for that purpose by the Washington State Patrol. The court is entitled to take judicial notice of the fact that the document has been filed with the court or maintained on the web site. Evidence will not be suppressed merely because there is not a representative of the prosecuting authority present who actually offers the document.
